Welcome:

Welcome to the “Jam with Jodi” Monthly Newsletter. I like to have fun and have so much going on, that I thought it would be nice to start a newsletter. I hope you enjoy it!

Jodi's Books:

This month in news about “Jodi's Books,” I would like to share a book review with you.

Building an Imagination

By William B. Hillman on January 10, 2014

Format: Kindle Edition Amazon Verified Purchase

When the mind of a child starts to grow, to seek answers to all the curious new things they keep seeing, it's great when they can learn what each of these new things are and what they do. Jodi has been able to think and feel as a child would and thus has mastered the art of communications when it counts the most. A book to share with many. Hats off Jodi, to a job well done.

This is a great 5 star review of “Clarinda Cloud” by Bill Hillman. Thank you, Bill.

My books have pages on all three of my sites. They can be found on Amazon.com as well as Barnesandnoble.com. All, except “Clarinda Cloud Activity Book” are also available on Kindle. If you would like to buy a signed copy, please contact me for details. Thank you.

Clarinda Cloud is my star. She has her own website. She is featured in two books and is planned to be featured in more. She has her own website and blogs. She is also promoted as a spokescloud to speak out about bullying prevention. She loves to talk about feelings.

Here, Clarinda Cloud talks about an illustration in one of my other books. She focuses on the feelings of the boy in the picture.

There is a new feature on Clarinda Cloud's site, where she displays drawings done by children that portray different emotions. These are displayed on Mondays.

Clarinda Cloud's website, like all my websites, is family friendly. It is suitable to view with children. Most everything at www.ClarindaCloud.com is spoken from Clarinda Cloud's point of view, which is meant to be the voice of a little girl cloud.
